

ECOM RESEARCH GROUP CONFERENCE
Human and Non-Human Animals: Minds and Morals
University of Connecticut, May 11-13th, 2017
Oak Hall 112

THURSDAY May 11th

- 2:00-2:15PM: Registration & Welcome
2:15-2:30PM: Opening Remarks
2:30-3:45PM: Lori Gruen – “Empathy in Mind”
4:00-5:00PM: Kelsey Gipe – “Empathy and the Problem of Altruism”
5:15-6:30PM: Kristin Leimgruber – “Sensitivity to Social Rewards and the Evolution of Uniquely Human Prosocial Behavior: Evidence from Young Children and Capuchin Monkeys (Cebus apella)”

FRIDAY May 12th

- 9:30-10:00AM Breakfast – Coffee & Bagels
10:00-11:15AM Peter Carruthers – “Basic Questions”
11:30-12:30PM Gary Comstock* – “Psychological Unity in First-Order Accounts of Metacognitive Behavior in Animals”
12:30-1:30PM Lunch! (sandwiches, etc. provided)
1:30-2:45PM Hans-Johann Glock – “Determinacy of Content – The Hard Problem about Animal Thinking”
3:00-4:00PM Nicolas Delon & Duncan Purves – “Meaning in the Lives of Humans and Other Animals”
4:15-5:30PM Darcia Narvaez – “Humanity’s Evolved Nest and its Co-Construction of Human Nature and Morality”
6:30PM Workshop Dinner at Chang’s Garden – REGISTRATION REQUIRED (register online)

*: joint work with William Bauer

SATURDAY May 13th

- 9:30-10:00AM Breakfast – Coffee & Bagels
10:00-11:15AM William Hopkins – “Cognitive Neuroscience Research with Chimpanzees and Other Great Apes: Benefiting Human Health and Improving Animal Welfare”
11:30-12:45PM Katherine A. Cronin – “Advancing Primate Welfare Through Science at a Modern Zoo”
12:45-2:00PM Lunch! (sandwiches, etc. provided)
2:00-3:30PM Panel Discussion

For abstracts, registration (required – free) and more details, please visit:

www.ecomresearchgroup.com